Annapolis, September 9.

SUNDAY laſt we received the moſt Welcome, and Important Article of News, THAT THE RICH AND POPULOUS CITY OF THE HAVANNAH, HAS SURRENDERED TO THE GALLANT, BRAVE, VICTORIOUS BRITISH FORCES: With which we moſt heartily Congratulate our Readers. Huzza! Huzza! Huzza!

All the Particulars relating to this AUGUST Acquiſition, which have yet come to Hand, were brought in to Philadelphia laſt Thurſday after the Papers were publiſhed, by a Veſſel directly from the Havannah, and are as follow:

On Friday, July 30, a choſen Number of Soldiers attacked the Mars, or Moor-Caſtle, and took it by Storm, with the Loſs of many Spaniards. From that Day to Tueſday the 10th of Auguſt, the Soldiers, and a great Number of Sailors, were employed in raiſing and compleating of Faſcine Batteries for the Cannon and Mortars, on an Eminence that ranges from the Moor-Caſtle, along the Eaſt Side of the Harbour, abreaſt with the major Part of the City, and their beſt Fortifications. On Tueſday the 10th of Auguſt, at 12 o'Clock, my Lord Albemarle ſent an Officer, with a Drum, to the Governor of the Havannah, to demand Poſſeſſion of the City; and in caſe of Refuſal, to acquaint him, that he would ſet Fire to it next Morning. The Governor ſent for Anſwer, that he would not give up the City; that he had 6 Months Ammunition to defend it. On Wedneſday, the 11th, at Five o'Clock in the Morning, all the Batteries began to play on the City and Forts, and kept ſo warm a Fire at them, that at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, our Batteries had diſmounted the major Part of the Guns on the City Walls, and in their ſtrong Forts, and had kill'd them a great Number of Men: At which Time the Governor ſent out 3 Officers with a Drum, in order to deſire Time to think of Terms of Capitulation; which was Granted: It was ſaid, that thoſe Gentlemen Officers deſired to know, whether the Spaniſh Admiral, with Three other Men of War of the Line, could be permitted to ſail to Spain unſearched or unmoleſted; [a very Modeſt Propoſal!] and that our General and Admiral gave them for Anſwer, That they could not allow them even a Spaniſh Long-Boat; but ſhould have good Engliſh Ships to Tranſport them to Spain in. On Saturday the 14th, my Lord Albemarle, with the Grenadiers, marched into the City, and took Poſſeſſion of it; and the Remainder of the Army encamped without the City Walls. On Monday the 16th, Commodore Keppel ſailed into the Harbour, and took Poſſeſſion of the Men of War, which were reported to be Nine Sail of the Line, beſides Three or Four that the Spaniards had ſunk acroſs the Harbour's Mouth. They had Launch'd a Ship of 110 Guns, but a few Days before the Arrival of the Fleet. We were informed, that the Spaniſh Admiral told our General, that there were more Naval Stores in the Havannah than would compleatly Rig all the Men of War that were there. In our Fleet, the Report of the King's Money in the Treaſury, was various, ſome ſaid Eight, and others Fourteen Millions of Mill'd Dollars. On Thurſday the 19th, and Friday the 20th, ſeveral of our largeſt Men of War went into the Harbour, as alſo a Number of large Tranſports, which were deſigned to carry the Spaniſh Soldiers to Spain: The ſame Day the Dragon Man of War, Capt. Harvey, was to ſail for England as Expreſs; as alſo the Enterprize Man of War, with a ſmall Frigate, ſail'd as Convoy to 15 or 20 Sail of Tranſports, with Soldiers to New-York, and at that Time the Cambridge, an 80 Gun Ship, with a 36 Gun Frigate, lay off with the Jamaica Fleet, and was to proceed to England with them. The Terms of Capitulation were not known to the Public; but the Spaniſh Families who had withdrawn from the City to the Country, were all returned with their Effects, and were in Poſſeſſion of their own Habitations; and ſome Soldiers and Engliſh Negroes were Hang'd for committing ſome ſmall Thefts on them.

BRUNSWICK, June 8.

ACCORDING to Advices received here Yeſterday from Prince Henry's Camp in Saxony, dated the 4th, the Pruſſian advanced Poſts had been attacked on the 2d, all at the ſame Time, by the Auſtrian Army, which had been reinforced the Day before, by ſeven Battalions. Prince Henry had ſucceeded in repulſing the Auſtrians every where, with the ſmall Loſs of 200 Men.

Hamburgh, June 11. Yeſterday we received Advice, that the King of Pruſſia is encamped with 7 Battalions only, at 3 German Miles from the Auſtrian Army, and 5 from Breſlau.

June 15. The 12th Inſt. his Swediſh Majeſty's Ratification of the Treaty of Peace concluded here the 22d paſt, arrived by a Courier to M. Zoge de Manteuffel, Miniſter from that Court in this Reſidence; and the Day following the Exchange was made at M. Manteuffel's Houſe, with M. de Hecht, the Pruſſian Miniſter. The ſame Day Te Deum was ſung at the French reformed Chapel, which is at M. Hecht's Hotel, upon the King of Pruſſia's Peace with the Emperor of Ruſſia, and the King of Sweden, at which were preſent their reſpective Miniſters: And in the Evening the Pruſſian Miniſter gave an Entertainment to both theſe Gentlemen.

Hague, June 18. The Letters from Madrid, of the 31ſt paſt, pretend, that the whole Province of Tras-los Montes had been evacuated by the Portugueſe; and add, that a body of Spaniſh Troops was in March from Galicia to inveſt Almeida.

Paris, June 20. The laſt Letters from Madrid adviſe, that the Spaniſh Army was marching in five Diviſions to lay Siege to Almeida, the only Fortreſs that can ſtop their March to Oporto. The 13 Battalions ſent by our Court to the Aſſiſtance of Spain, entered that Kingdom the Beginning of this Month. They are to join in Galicia the Spaniſh Troops commanded by the Marquis de Croix, and proceed againſt Oporto.

According to our laſt Accounts the Toulon Squadron, conſiſting of ten Ships of the Line, four Frigates, and eight Flutes, was gone out of the Harbour into the Road, and we ſuppoſe is now at Sea. Its Deſtination is a Myſtery. If it joins a Spaniſh Squadron of the ſame Force, they may in Conjunction make a powerful Diverſion.

LONDON, June 17.

It is ſaid that of 6000 Men, which the Spaniards embarked by Stealth for the Weſt-Indies, on board Dutch Tranſports, 3000 died in their Paſſage, by the Diſtemper which broke out among them in Conſequence of their being crowded in the Veſſels, in a Manner ſcarce credible.

The Count de la Lippe Buckebourg is a Sovereign Count of the Empire. His Title in Portugal will be Generaliſſimo, where he will command in Chief an Army of about 50,000 Men.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Halifax is appointed Firſt Lord of the Admiralty, in the room of Lord Anſon, deceaſed.

June 18. The Epreuve Frigate, Peter Blake, Eſq; Commander, is arrived at Plymouth from Virginia, and has brought over with him three Cherokee Indians.

Tranſports are ſaid to receive a conſiderable Number of Horſe and Foot Forces, particularly ſome Light Horſe: The Number of Britiſh Forces to be employed in Portugal, will be compleated in a few Days to 20,000, beſides which a Number of Highlanders will ſhortly embark for that Place.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, dated June 20.

"The Right Hon. Lord Howe has quitted his Majeſty's Ship the Magnanime, and has taken Poſſeſſion of the Princeſs Amelia; on board which Ship we hear his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York is to hoiſt his Flag. The whole Expedition is now compleated, and ready for the Sea; and we expect Sir Edward Hawke to put to Sea every Day."

Letters from Paris of the 10th of June ſay, that beſides Chaves and Moncorvo, the Spaniards are alſo in Poſſeſſion of another little Place, which makes the Fifth, called Otoyra.

There are Reports about Town, that ſome of the Engliſh Forces, being an advanced Party, had fallen in with an advanced Party of Spaniards, about 24 Miles inland from the Frontiers of Portugal, and that the latter retired with great Precipitation, without ſtanding a third Fire.

A Houſe is taken in Suffolk-ſtreet, and an Equipage preparing, for the three Cherokee Indian Chiefs. Clothes are alſo making, after the Engliſh Faſhion, in which they are to make their Appearance.—They are to be cloathed in ſcarlet.

BOSTON, Auguſt 16.

NEWFOUNDLAND.

A Brigantine arrived here this Week from Newfoundland, having a Number of Engliſh Inhabitants on board from St. John's, which they left the 22d of July, by whom we have Intelligence, That the French Fleet from Breſt conſiſted of the Robuſte of 74, the Eveille of 64, Lecorne of 36, and the Caronne of 30 Guns; this laſt was only a Storeſhip, and had formerly been a Maſt-ſhip, now commanded by an Iriſhman, one Sutton, born at Newfoundland, and well known there, but calls himſelf by the Name Claaard. The Troops conſiſted of 1300, one Half picked Men, under Marquis Oſſonville, but that the Commodore de Tournay, commanded in Chief the whole Land and Sea Forces: The Ships were ill manned, ſcarce enough capable of managing the Veſſels. When the Enemy got into Bay of Bulls, they landed 650 of their Regulars, who immediately inliſted about 25 Iriſhmen, and marched to attack the Fort at St. John's; having firſt put a Number of Cannon in ſome Boats, to land them near the Garriſon, as it would have been very difficult to carry them from Bay of Bulls by Land. Upon the ſudden Appearance of the French, who were unexpected on that Way, and the Fort being Defenceleſs on the Land Side, the Commanding Officer, having no Opportunity to ſtrengthen it, and having but 46 Regulars, and 16 Artillery-men, they fired two Guns, and ſurrendered, as it was judged impoſſible to ſtand the Enemy ten Minutes. They could get no other Terms than what M. de Tournay promiſed in the Manifeſto he gave out on his firſt Landing: It is farther ſaid, that the French had declared they were 5000 ſtrong, and were determined to ſtorm the Fort when they had got their Cannon aſhore: As ſoon as the French had Poſſeſſion of St. John's, they immediately ſet about fortifying the Place, as if they intended to keep it; they have made a Tier of Ramparts all around, and mounted them with Guns taken from the different Ships; they have alſo built a new Battery on the Southward of that called Fort William, or the South Battery: They have inliſted about 200 Iriſhmen there, moſt of which were inliſted by the Captain of the Storeſhip; there were a great Number of them at Work every Day, and ſeem to be fond of their new Maſters. The French have laid a Boom acroſs the Mouth of the Harbour of St. John's, with Maſts faſtened together, and banking Chains, a Quarter of an Inch through: It is the Opinion of ſeveral Perſons that have ſeen theſe Fortifications, that they could make but little Reſiſtance if a regular Force came againſt them; for though their regular Forces are the beſt of their Kind, yet the Seamen are ſo very bad, that they are not able to fight their Ships: The Ships in the Harbour have their Yards and Top-maſts down, and Sails unbent, deſigning to ſtay till the latter End of September, as they themſelves declare, and that when the Ships return Home, it is to be garriſoned by 4 or 500 Men.——Notwithſtanding the ſeeming Reſolution of the French, they were continually alarmed with the Expectation of Engliſh Men of War, and it is ſaid keep an armed Veſſel or two to look out.——The Enemy being determined to remove all the Engliſh from St. John's, and leave only thoſe of the Iriſh there who would engage on the Side of the French King, they ſent to England the Commanding Officer, Captain Roſs, with the Regulars, in a Veſſel provided for that Purpoſe, ſome ſay it was the Gramont Frigate:—The Inhabitants were all ordered away on board the reſpective Veſſels provided for them, with very ſhort Allowance of Proviſions; and permitted only to take a Bed and Blanket, no more was granted even to thoſe who had Poſſeſſions of great Value there:—But it is ſaid this was contrary to the Diſpoſition of the Commander of the Land Forces; whoſe Behaviour to the Engliſh was very humane and generous; though it could not extend far, as he was under the Controul of M. de Tournay; whoſe cruel Diſpoſition would not allow the leaſt Favour to be granted to the Inhabitants: Which M. Oſſonville has given out that he will repreſent to the Court on his Return to France: He gave Liberty to ſome of the principal Perſons that came in the Brig which arrived here, to take ſome of their own Stock of Poultry for their Voyage, but before they got out of the Harbour, the Commodore ordered moſt of them to be taken away: He is ſo ſevere as to threaten with Death any Engliſhman that only kills a Hog.

The above Brigantine was given to Capt. Hearn, who commanded her when ſhe came in here, on Condition of his carrying from St. John's 92 Engliſhmen, Women and Children, to Maryland; he landed 17 of them, at their Desire, at Lunenbourg, in Nova-Scotia, the rest he brought to this Port.—Some of the principal Persons who came in her are, William Thomas, Esq; a Merchant of St. John's, whose Family arrived here some Time before; Capt. Shepherd, whose Vessel was taken there; Capt. Kelsey, of Rhode-Island, who went into the Harbour of St. John's with his Vessel, after the Place was taken, as formerly mentioned;——Captain John Johnson, of New-York, and Mr. John Lewis, of London: These Gentlemen were taken in the Ship Sally, on her Voyage from London to New-York, having a very valuable Cargo on board; she was taken in Lat. 48. Long. 36. by the above-mentioned Caronne Storeship; the Commodore would have ransomed the Vessel, had not the Irish Captain dissuaded him from it: When they got Possession of the Sally, they had not Seamen suitable to navigate her; and the Poitroons, after opening the Hatches, and breaking up some of the Bales of Goods, destroyed her.——Captain Hearn was also taken in the same Latitude; he was in the Sloop Dolphin, bound from Dartmouth to Newfoundland, was taken out of his Vessel, and ordered on board the Commodore's Ship.

August 23. Friday last arrived here the Captains Phipps and Medcalf in 10 Days from Halifax, by whom we learn, That the Right Hon. Lord Colvil, in his Majesty's Ship Northumberland of 74 Guns, together with the Gosport of 40, and our Province Ship King George of 24 Guns, sailed from thence the same Day, with the above Vessels, for Placentia in Newfoundland, in order to join his Majesty's Ships Antilope of 50 Guns and Syrene of 24, from whence it is said they are to proceed to St. John's, in order to block up the French Ships in that Harbour.

ANNAPOLIS, September 9.

Thursday Night last, Mr. Chew's Store in this Town was broke open, and robbed. Some of the Goods are since found, and two Men are in Goal, on strong Suspicion of being the Perpetrators.

Saturday last, William Cockey, a young Man, fell from the Round-top of a Ship at West-River, and received so much Hurt, that he died soon after.

A Gentleman at Oxford, in a Letter of Yesterday Morning, just as the Oxford-Packet sailed, writes, "Two Ships are this Mo-"ment arrived; but I have not yet seen the "Captains, as they are not yet come on "Shore." [They are from Quebec.]

Monday Evening last, there was a Grand BALL in the Council-House, and other Rejoicings, upon the great and happy Event of taking the HAVANNAH.

It is more than probable, that the Information given us last Week, by the HONEST Virginia Pilot, who said he was on board the Gosport Man of War at York, was all a Fib; as the Reader will judge by turning his Eye to the last above Boston Article.

SUCH GENTLEMEN and LADIES who have any Intention of Subscribing to the CIRCULATING LIBRARY (the Proposals of which were published in the last GAZETTE) are requested to give in their Names immediately, that the Library may be opened, and such other Books ordered by the Return of the Fleet as may be agreeable to the Majority of the Subscribers.
